

Biking with Gallaudet President Hurwitz Saturday, May 7, 2011

The Gallaudet University Alumni Association (GUAA) invites you to join us for a 20-mile bike ride with Gallaudet President T. Alan Hurwitz. Riders will meet at Gallaudet, then bike to Old Town Alexandria via the Mt. Vernon trail. Riders will turn around at a designated location and bike back to the University. Places of interests along the Mt. Vernon trail include the Jefferson Memorial, Reagan National Airport, the sailing marina, and historic Alexandria. Ride will take place rain or shine. *

National Mall: Ride along "our nation's front yard."

Gravelly Point Park: Enjoy a lovely view of the Washington skyline and a close-up look at Reagan National Airport's runway. Portapotties are available at this location.

Daingerfield Island: Watch airplanes take off from Reagan National Airport, and watch sailboats and windsurfers go by.

Non-refundable Fee: Pre-registration is $25, and day of ride registration is $30. Children under 12 for free. Registration includes a ride map, refreshments, and pictures with President Hurwitz. Proceeds benefit the Laurent Clerc Cultural Fund and dVELO in their efforts to support the GUAA and USDCA.

Please make your check or money order payable to: "GUAA"

Send to: Roberta Gage, KDES, 800 Florida Avenue, NE, Washington, DC 20002-3695
